TOWN TALK.

The editor is absent; his scholars and quill are left with the "devil" to handle at will; and this is inserted, kind reader, that you may for once, while you read, "give the devil his due."

 The absence of the editor during the most of the week will account for a lack of the usual amount of local matter in this issue.
 The St. Joe arrived yesterday afternoon heavily loaded with freight and but few passengers. She will make at least one more trip.
 Hon. J. B. Haviland, State Swamp Land Commissioner, arrived in the village from his trip to the north shore on the St. Joe this morning.
 Last Sunday the weather prophet of the village stated that we should have two weeks of fine weather. The indications are that we will—next spring.

There is something radically wrong in the management of the household when things assume the appearance of a funeral every time father comes home.
 In the present condition of navigation upon our inland lakes it requires about three days to make a three hours' journey. We trust that next year this will be different.
 McArthur, Smith & Co. are putting the goods upon the shelves of their new store room. When finished, their store will be one of the most complete in the northern country.
 Mr. E. T. Williams, of L'Anse, the senior member of the firm doing the dredging in our harbor, has spent the past week in our town. He came last Saturday via the stage from Petoskey.
 "Age will bring us gloomy hours and time will make us sad," therefore render home as pleasant as possible for the little folks. Good books, newspapers, games of checkers and chess, and pleasant words from father and mother, are great inducements to keep Jack, Tom, and Harry from the saloons.

Capt. O. L. Wood, of Elkhart, Indiana, a veteran lake captain, was here a few days this week looking into the practicability of putting a line of passenger boats on our inland lakes, provided the state makes the proposed improvement. He went over the proposed route with the Local Commissioner and expressed himself well pleased with the prospects.
 The Hurl dock will, we understand, soon pass into the possession of Mr. Geo. P. Humphrey. He has already made a contract with Williams & Co. to dredge out the channel next to the dock to the depth of the main channel, and also arranged for many needed improvements upon the dock and warehouse. It will be ready for the largest sized boats next season. We learn that Mr. Geo. McArthur will have charge of the dock.

Ford in Trouble.

Prosecuting Attorney Ford of Emmet county is in trouble. Since he commenced a libel suit against Smith, of the Charlevoix Sentinel, the tides of his life have not flowed smoothly. The Grand Jury of the United States Court at Grand Rapids lately found three different indictments against him, for violating the revenue laws in the manufacture and sale of cigars. The U. S. Marshal arrested him on the 11th, and after repeated but fruitless attempts to get bail in Petoskey, he accompanied the officer to Grand Rapids, where Smith says he was undoubtedly cast into the goal among other thieves and robbers.

The penalty will be a severe one, as the Court cannot avoid taking into consideration his past record. Ford was gradually weaving a net-work about him which has now brought him to serious grief. And if he gets out of this, other troubles of an equally serious nature are said to await him.
 It is surprising to us that the people of Emmet county will submit to having a man of his character occupying such a responsible position. It seems to us that should have been taken long since to rid the county of such a man who cannot do otherwise than bring the county as well as himself to disgrace.

The State Camp Meeting Ground.
 It is generally understood that the location of the state camp meeting ground has been definitely fixed at Petoskey, by the locating committee of the general state conference. We learn from the Petoskey Democrat that the vote of the committee stood seven for Petoskey to two for Traverse City. The location is conditioned upon Petoskey donating the land necessary for the use of the association. This will amount to about $3,500, which amount has nearly been subscribed, and doubtless will be in full. For several reasons we are glad that Petoskey has been selected. We know of no place which needs the effect of missionary labor more, or that is more desolate in point of convenience and scenery; and besides all that, it will bring a large amount of travel this place, pushed to completion. The gathering of such a large number of people from all parts of the country at that place, cannot but have a favorable effect upon the growth and prosperity of the whole northern country.

Arrested.
 Yesterday Village Marshal Mulvaney received a dispatch from the Marshal of Alpena requesting him to arrest a woman named Estella Jennings, who was on board the St. Joe. The woman was arrested according to orders, and the Alpena Marshal notified. He instructed the Marshal to send her back to Alpena in charge of the captain. Captain Fall would not receive her, very properly declining to make his boat a jail. Not having any further instructions, the woman was liberated by the Marshal, but is in town where she can be had when wanted. We understand that the charge is for abducting a child. It is supposed by some that it was a "set up job." If the Alpena officers want their criminals arrested they must take the proper course.
